

«Замок детства» в совхозе им. Ленина

A photograph of the clock tower of the National Museum of the Republic of China. The tower has a large, ornate clock face with a green and gold design. Above the clock is a colorful, multi-tiered roof. The tower is flanked by two figures in traditional Chinese attire. The background shows a blue sky with white clouds.

A large group of children and adults are gathered in a brightly lit hall, likely during a school event or performance. The children, mostly in school uniforms, are clapping and some are dancing in the center. The room is decorated with balloons and a large banner. The children are of various ages, and the adults are also clapping and watching the performance. The atmosphere is festive and joyful.
